Prayer

I come to you, not as an abused child but as a son (daughter). I ascend above all the warfare and accusations of the enemy and lock eyes with You at your mercy seat. I declare my authority to deliver and be delivered by the blood of the lamb. I plead your blood in the courtroom of Heaven over my life and my household. I break agreement with the accuser and forgive those who have accused me whether knowingly or unknowingly. I cleanse my soul of emotional baggage associated with any manipulations or lies spoken, prayed, or insinuated. I sit down with you and gaze on you, The Lamb who was slain for me and those who accuse me. I consider you the Lion who will come again and destroy every work of darkness. I thank you that I am seated with you. I declare this war is over and I do not have to be subject to it, You are my Hiding place. Fill me with joy, happiness, strength, and the authority to deliver and be delivered. Break the bindings that have kept me in a tug-of-war with this spirit. I rest in you now and thank you that I can always come boldly to your throne of grace where I will receive mercy. I declare I am robed with righteousness and am commissioned by you to bring heaven to earth.
